DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-8, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Silverbrook (*US Patent 6357135 cited in the IDS filed on 10/05/2004).

As to claim 1, Silverbrook discloses a telescope having a built-in printer for printing a graphic image corresponding to an optical image received optically by the telescope. See Col. 1, lines 59-62.

As to claim 2, Silverbrook includes a CCD sensor 14 and a central processor (see Col. 3, lines 36-44).

As to claims 4-5, see the disclosure of Silverbrook at Col. 3, line 36 and lines 65-67.

As to claims 6-8, 10, see Col. 3, lines 44-50, and Fig. 1.

Art Unit: 2861

4. Claims 1, 2, 4-8, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Silverbrook (US Patent No. 6357135)

The applied reference has a common assignee/inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

As to claim 1, Silverbrook discloses a telescope having a built-in printer for printing a graphic image corresponding to an optical image received optically by the telescope. See Col. 1, lines 59-62.

As to claim 2, Silverbrook includes a CCD sensor 14 and a central processor (see Col. 3, lines 36-44).

As to claims 4-5, see the disclosure of Silverbrook at Col. 3, line 36 and lines 65-67.

As to claims 6-8, 10, see Col. 3, lines 44-50, and Fig. 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Silverbrook in view of Silverbrook (US Patent Publication 2005/0275691).

The applied reference has a common assignee/inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(I)(1) and § 706.02(I)(2).

As to claim 3, Silverbrook does not explicitly show the limitations: a micro-control circuit operatively connected to the print engine controller to control a motor driver for print media transportation; and a motor driver for operating a guillotine motor to sever a printed image from a roller of print media.

However, such limitations are shown in the US Patent Publication US2005/0275691 to Silverbrook. See Figs. 96-100 and the detailed description thereof.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the teachings of Silverbrook to control the motor driver for print media transportation and for operating a guillotine motor for severing a printed image from a roller of print media.

7. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Silverbrook (US Patent 6357135).

The applied reference has a common assignee/inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(l)(1) and § 706.02(l)(2).

Silverbrook does not disclose a telescope in details (the preferred embodiment relates to a binocular), hence it is silent with respect to the claimed limitation "including a longitudinal body through which passes at least some of the optical path of light entering the telescope, and a slot extending along the body through which the graphic image is, in use, dispensed".

Art Unit: 2861

However, it is submitted that the details of the claimed telescope having a slot extending along the longitudinal body of the telescope through which the printed media is dispensed is mere workshop variations.
